

An old woman had seven children.
She made a big pancake.

The children said,
"We want that big pancake."

The pancake heard the children.
It said,
"The children shall not eat me."
And it rolled away.

The Pancake

An old woman had seven children.
She made a big pancake.
The pancake rolled away.

The old woman ran after the
pancake.
The seven children ran after it.

An old man saw the pancake.
"Stop," said the old man.
I want to eat you."

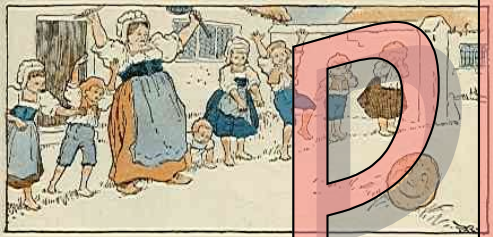

A hen saw the pancake.
"Stop, pancake," said the hen.
I want to eat you."

An old woman had

seven children. She

made a big pancake

PREVIEW

The pig ate the

pancake.

boy

boy

cock

cock

dog

dog

man

man

pig

pig

PREVIEW

woman

seven

pancake

roted

brook

snout

Circle the nouns (person, place, thing).

1. A woman had seven children.
2. The pancake rolled away.
3. My children want to eat you.
4. "Stop," said the old man.
5. A hen saw the pancake.
6. They came to a brook.
7. I can not go into the water.
8. Get on my snout.
9. You are a good pancake.
10. He ate it up.

Circle the verbs (action words).

1. She made a big pancake.
2. The pancake rolled away.
3. I can not stop for you.
4. "Stop," said the old man.
5. Do not go so fast.
6. I will go with you.
7. I can swim over the brook.
8. Get on my snout.
9. I will swim over with you.
10. He ate it up.

PREVIEW

Number the words in alphabetical order:

_____ woman

_____ children

_____ pancake

_____ man

_____ hen

_____ cock

_____ boy

_____ dog

_____ pig

PREVIEW

Circle the correctly spelled words.

woman

wumen

chidrin

children

pancake

pancack

dog

dogg

MATCHING

woman

children

pancake

man

hen

cock

boy

dog

pig

The copytext for this on-line edition is READING-LITERATURE THE PRIMER, adapted and graded by Harriette Taylor Treadwell and Margaret Free, illustrated by Frederik Richardson, Evanston: Row, Peterson & Company, 1910. It is in the public domain in the United States.

